09/20/2018		MINUTE ORDER: The Court is in receipt of parties' 21 Joint Status Report. The parties represent that Defendant has completed Plaintiff's 2016 request. Defendant is continuing to work on Plaintiff's 2017 and 2018 requests and will be able to provide a schedule for completing these requests within the next forty-five days. Plaintiff anticipates that it will file a Motion for Summary Judgment regarding withholdings in the production of Plaintiff's 2016 request. But, to avoid bifurcated briefing, Plaintiff will not file a Motion for Summary Judgment before more information is known about the 2017 and 2018 requests. The Court ORDERS the parties to file a Joint Status Report by NOVEMBER 2, 2018 apprising the Court on the status of Defendant's progress on Plaintiff's FOIA requests. If circumstances warrant, parties will also file a proposed briefing schedule for summary judgment at that time. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 09-20-2018. (lcckk3) (Entered: 09/20/2018)

11/02/2018		MINUTE ORDER: The Court is in receipt of the parties' 22 Joint Status Report. Plaintiff and the IRS report that the IRS's search for documents responsive to Plaintiff's 2017 and 2018 requests has identified approximately 13,209 responsive pages. The IRS has proposed to produce the documents on a rolling basis, with a final deadline for the entire production of February 25, 2019. Plaintiff and the IRS are ORDERED to file a further Joint Status Report on MARCH 4, 2019, proposing a schedule for summary judgment briefing on withholdings from the 2016 IRS request and, if needed, on withholdings from the 2017 and 2018 IRS requests. Plaintiff and the

		DOJ report that DOJ's initial search has returned approximately 1 million responsive pages, and the search is ongoing. The DOJ anticipates that it can propose a production schedule by November 30, 2018. But, Plaintiff requests that the Court order the parties to file another Joint Status Report by November 16, 2018, apprising the Court of whether negotiations to narrow Plaintiff's request have been fruitful. Plaintiff and the DOJ are ORDERED to file another Joint Status Report on NOVEMBER 16, 2018, apprising the Court on the status of efforts to narrow Plaintiff's request. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 11/2/2018. (lcckk3) (Entered: 11/02/2018)
11/02/2018		Set/Reset Deadlines: Joint Status Report by Plaintiff and DOJ due by 11/16/2018, apprising the Court on the status of efforts to narrow Plaintiff's request. Joint Status Report by Plaintiff and IRS due by 3/4/2019, proposing a schedule for summary judgment briefing on withholdings from the 2016 IRS request and, if needed, on withholdings from the 2017 and 2018 IRS requests. 11/16/2018	23	Joint STATUS REPORT by INSTITUTE FOR JUSTICE. (Baasch, Ryan) (Entered: 11/16/2018)
11/16/2018		MINUTE ORDER: The Court is in receipt of the parties' 23 Joint Status Report. The parties report that they have made some progress in narrowing the scope of Plaintiff's FOIA request. Defendant DOJ will be able to propose a processing schedule by November 30, 2018. But, Defendant DOJ cannot provide any information to Plaintiff earlier as Defendant DOJ is still compiling the necessary information. Plaintiff notes that, depending on Defendant DOJ's proposed schedule, it reserves the right to ask the Court to order Defendant DOJ to produce all responsive documents by a date certain. The Court ORDERS the parties to file another Joint Status Report by NOVEMBER 30, 2018, setting forth Defendant DOJ's proposed schedule and Plaintiff's response. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 11/16/2018. (lcckk3) (Entered: 11/16/2018)
11/30/2018	24	Joint STATUS REPORT by DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE. (Attachments: # 1 Butler Declaration)(Hendry, Melanie) (Entered: 11/30/2018)
12/07/2018		MINUTE ORDER: The Court is in receipt of the parties' 24 Joint Status Report. Plaintiff and the DOJ report that DOJ's search for Plaintiff's FOIA request has identified approximately 35,000 potentially responsive pages. The parties disagree on a timeline for processing and releasing the responsive documents. DOJ proposes that it make monthly rolling productions, with 400 pages reviewed per month, beginning January 4, 2019. Plaintiff insists that this production schedule is too slow. While Plaintiff does not dispute that the review of potentially responsive documents may begin on January 4, 2019, Plaintiff proposes that more pages be reviewed each month. Plaintiff points out that that DOJ's proposed schedule would result in full production taking over seven years. Instead, Plaintiff proposes that DOJ make monthly rolling productions, with 8,800 pages reviewed per month. Through the Declaration of Christina Butler, DOJ insists that its FOIA unit is working diligently to process Plaintiff's FOIA request, which is only one of 606 pending requests. But, DOJ has not informed the Court where Plaintiff's request falls in the que of other requests. The Court ORDERS DOJ to supply the Court with this information in a Status Report by DECEMBER 19, 2018. This information will assist the Court in determining whether 400 pages per month is a reasonable schedule. The Court further ORDERS that DOJ's December 19, 2018 Status Report include a categorization of the types of documents that DOJ has identified as potentially responsive to Plaintiff's request. Plaintiff can use this information to prioritize DOJ's document processing and release, such as leaving to the last release public documents. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 12/7/2018. 12/19/2018		MINUTE ORDER: The Court is in receipt of the Defendant DOJ's 25 Status Report. In accordance with the Court's December 7, 2018 Minute Order, Defendant DOJ filed a Status Report informing the Court of where Plaintiff's request falls in the que of other requests and categorizing the types of documents that Defendant DOJ has identified as potentially responsive to Plaintiff's request. Given this new information, the Court ORDERS Defendant DOJ and Plaintiff to meet and confer in an attempt to create and prioritize a mutually agreeable production plan. The Court ORDERS the parties to file another Joint Status Report by JANUARY 11, 2019, informing the Court of the parties' efforts to develop a production schedule. 12/27/2018	26	MOTION to Stay in Light of Lapse in Appropriations by INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE (Coppler, Catriona) (Entered: 12/27/2018)

01/02/2019		MINUTE ORDER: The Court is in receipt of Defendant's 26 Motion for Stay of the Internal Revenue Service's Production Schedule. Defendant IRS requests a stay because the appropriations act which had been funding the IRS has lapsed. Defendant IRS requests that a stay be granted pending restored appropriations. Defendant IRS indicates that it will notify the Court once appropriations have been restored, and all deadlines for the parties can be extended commensurate with the duration of the appropriations lapse. Defendant IRS indicates that Plaintiff does not oppose this motion. Defendant's motion is GRANTED. Defendant IRS is ORDERED to file a Status Report informing the Court of the parties' new deadlines within five days of the restoration of appropriations. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 1-2-2019. (lcckk3) (Entered: 01/02/2019)

01/31/2019		MINUTE ORDER: The Court is in receipt of Defendant IRS's 27 Notice and Status Report. Defendant reports that funding has been restored to the Department of Justice and the Internal Revenue Service for at least the next three weeks. Accordingly, the Court ORDERS the stay lifted. Plaintiff and Defendant IRS have agreed that Defendant IRS will continue producing records on a rolling basis with a final deadline for the entire production of APRIL 2, 2019. Plaintiff and Defendant IRS are ORDERED to file a Joint Status Report by APRIL 8, 2019, proposing a summary judgment briefing schedule. The Court further ORDERS Plaintiff and Defendant DOJ to file a Joint Status Report by FEBRUARY 15, 2019, informing the Court of the parties' efforts to develop a production schedule. The parties were previously ordered to file a Joint Status Report by January 11, 2019; but, due to the stay and the lack of appropriations, no report was filed. 02/15/2019	28	Joint STATUS REPORT by DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE. (Hendry, Melanie) (Entered: 02/15/2019)
02/15/2019		MINUTE ORDER: The Court is in receipt of Plaintiff's and Defendant DOJ's 28 Joint Status Report. The parties have conferred about a rolling production schedule for responsive documents. For documents in prioritized categories 3-7, the parties agree that DOJ will complete its production of all non-exempt responsive documents in categories 4-7 by April 5, 2019, and its production of all non-exempt responsive documents in category 3 by May 3, 2019. The parties have not yet reached an agreement on a production schedule for the documents in categories 1 and 2 as DOJ does not yet know how many pages will be in those categories. The parties are ORDERED to file another Joint Status Report on or before MAY 17, 2019, indicating whether the parties have agreed on a production schedule for the documents in categories 1 and 2. If the parties have not reached an agreement, they should submit proposals for the Court's resolution. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 2-15-2019. (lcckk3,) (Entered: 02/15/2019)

04/09/2019		MINUTE ORDER: The Court is in receipt of the parties' 29 Joint Status Report. The parties report that IRS has made a complete production of five of the seven categories in Plaintiff's FOIA request. However, no documents responsive to the other two categories have been released. IRS recently identified approximately 90,000 pages responsive to these two categories. In an effort to narrow Plaintiff's request, IRS provided a sample of 74 pages responsive to the two categories. Plaintiff indicates that IRS applied exemptions to these sample pages in an overbroad fashion. Plaintiff requests that the Court order summary judgment briefing on IRS's applications of exemptions to the five categories it produced in full as well as on the application of exemptions to the representative sampling from the other two categories. IRS argues that the case is not ripe for summary judgment briefing because the Court would have to make a premature determination that IRS is improperly withholding records that have not been released. The Court will HOLD IN ABEYANCE Plaintiff's request for summary judgment briefing. The court ORDERS the parties to meet and confer in an attempt to further narrow Plaintiff's request as to the final two categories of documents. The Court further ORDERS the parties to file another Joint Status Report by MAY 24, 2019. The Joint Status Report should inform the Court whether or not IRS still opposes summary judgment briefing and how long it will take for the IRS to complete "searching and reviewing the potentially responsive records" and to finish "releasing all responsive, non-exempt records." ECF No. 29, 5. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 4/9/2019. (lcckk3) (Entered: 04/09/2019)

05/20/2019		MINUTE ORDER: The Court is in receipt of the parties' 31 Joint Status Report. The parties report that DOJ has made a complete production of five of the seven categories in Plaintiff's FOIA request. As to the remaining categories, there are approximately 18,170 potentially responsive pages. DOJ proposes that it make its next production on July 5, 2019 and that it complete production of all remaining responsive non-exempt records by no later than March 31, 2021. A two-year production schedule would not appear to be reasonable to the Court without further explanation. Plaintiff contends that this schedule is too slow and asks that the Court order DOJ to process a designated number of pages per month on a rolling basis and submits that 5,000 pages per month is a reasonable requirement. The Court ORDERS Defendant to file a Status Report by MAY 31, 2019 indicating to the Court whether or not processing 5,000 pages per month is feasible. If 5,000 pages per month is not possible, Defendant should suggest a reasonable designated number of pages per month which it can process. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 5/20/2019. 05/29/2019		MINUTE ORDER: The Court is in receipt of Defendant Department of Justice's 33 Consent Motion for Extension of Time. On May 20, 2019, the Court ordered Defendant Department of Justice to file a status report by May 31, 2019, indicating to the Court whether or not processing 5,000 pages per month is feasible in the FOIA case. Defendant requests an extension as Defense counsel is out of the office through June 11, 2019. Plaintiff does not oppose this extension. Defendant Department of Justice's Motion is GRANTED. Defendant Department of Justice is ORDERED to file its status report by JUNE 14, 2019. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on

		5/29/2019. (lcckk3) (Entered: 05/29/2019)
05/29/2019		MINUTE ORDER: The Court is in receipt of the parties' 32 Joint Status Report. The parties report that IRS has made a complete production of five of the seven categories in Plaintiff's FOIA request. However, no documents responsive to the other two categories have been released. The IRS recently identified approximately 90,000 pages responsive to these two categories. The parties have agreed to filter out certain documents in an effort to narrow the responsive pages. Because the IRS is still in the process of filtering out the agreed upon documents, the IRS does not have a precise estimate of the volume of potentially responsive records or a timeline for producing documents. The IRS proposes that beginning in June 2019 it make rolling productions of 500 pages by the last day of each month. Plaintiff indicates that the IRS's proposal to process 500 pages a month is not reasonable. Instead, Plaintiff proposes that the Court order the IRS to produce 5,000 pages per month. Plaintiff further requests that summary judgment briefing is warranted on the five categories of documents the IRS has produced in full and on the representative sample of the remaining categories that the IRS produced. The Court finds that summary judgment briefing is not ripe at this time. As to the five categories of documents that the IRS has produced in full, summary judgment briefing would require the court to bifurcate the issues. Bifurcating the issues risks wasting judicial resources and complicating the issues presented for judicial resolution. Additionally, as to the representative sample, because the IRS has not finished reviewing the records at issue, the Court cannot be certain that the sample documents produced and redacted are representative of all types of documents which will eventually be processed or of all FOIA Exemptions that the IRS will assert. Depending on how the case progresses, Plaintiff may again request bifurcated summary judgment briefing at a later time if the circumstances require it. The Court ORDERS the IRS to file a Status Report as soon as the IRS has a precise estimate of the volume of potentially responsive records following the agreed upon narrowing, but by no later than JULY 5, 2019. The Status Report should indicate to the Court whether or not processing 5,000 pages per month is feasible. If 5,000 pages per month is not possible, Defendant should suggest a reasonable designated number of pages per month which it can process. The Court cautions Defendant that it is unlikely to find a timeline of multiple years to be a reasonable production schedule. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 5/29/2019. 06/14/2019		MINUTE ORDER: The Court is in receipt of Defendant Department of Justice's 34 Status Report. Defendant DOJ reports that it currently has 45 pending litigation matters in its litigation queue. This case is number 25. Defendant reports that there are approximately 18,000 remaining pages of records responsive to Plaintiff's requests. Defendant proposes a production schedule under which it processes a minimum of 1,000 pages per month, beginning in July 2019, with a final production date of February 28, 2020. The Court ORDERS Plaintiff to file a response to this proposal by JUNE 24, 2019. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 6/14/2019. (lcckk3) (Entered: 06/14/2019)
06/14/2019		Set/Reset Deadlines: Plaintiff's Response to Defendants' propose schedule due by 6/24/2019. (dot) (Entered: 06/18/2019)
06/21/2019	35	RESPONSE re 34 Status Report filed by INSTITUTE FOR JUSTICE. (Baasch, Ryan) (Entered: 06/21/2019)
06/21/2019		MINUTE ORDER: The Court is in receipt of Plaintiff's 35 Response to Defendant the Department of Justice's June 14, 2019 Status Report. In Defendant DOJ's 34 status report, Defendant indicates that it can produce 1,000 pages per month, beginning in July 2019, with a final production date of February 28, 2020. Plaintiff does not oppose this proposal. Accordingly, the Court ORDERS Defendant DOJ to produce 1,000 pages per month, beginning in July 2019, with a final production date of February 28, 2020. In its Status Report, Defendant further noted that it will be required to refer many responsive documents to other agencies. The Court recognizes that Defendant DOJ may be required to wait for other agencies to consult on the requested records;

		however, Defendant DOJ should take all reasonable steps to prevent the referral and consultation process from slowing Defendant's processing and disclosures to Plaintiff. The Court ORDERS the parties to file a Joint Status Report on or before JULY 22, 2019. The parties are further ORDERED to file additional Joint Status Reports every 30 days thereafter. The parties are also free to file Joint Status Reports between the filing deadlines if issues arise that require the Court's attention. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 6/21/2019.
